MIDDLETON, MA – September 7, 2012 – The sixth annual Ferencroft Junior Golf Classic raised thousands of dollars for disadvantaged youth yesterday and celebrated the growth of the FCC Junior Scholarship Program. 100% of net proceeds from the Classic were donated to the Program, which has doubled the number of scholarships given to underprivileged children within the past two years, providing them with access, instruction and equipment to introduce them to the game of golf, and in turn, the values the game promotes: honesty, discipline, self-control and respect.

Tuukka Rask, the Bruins' goaltender, has agreed to be the host of the FCC Junior Golf Classic going forward. He has participated in the Classic for the past two years and feels strongly about supporting the FCC Junior Scholarship Program because of the positive impact it has on the participants.

Boston Bruins past and present played in the tournament to show their support for the Program, which included Rask, Ray and Chris Bourque, Don Delnegro, Doug Houda, Mark Mawers, Daniel Paille, Bob Sweeney, Shawn Thorton and Jeff Ward. Former Ferencroft long drive champion and Red Sox legend Jim Rice also took part.

Ryan Bourque, from the New York Rangers affiliate Connecticut Whale and son of Bruins legend Ray Bourque, won the Celebrity Long Drive with a prize of an Annual Membership at Ferencroft CC.

The Ferencroft CC Junior Golf Scholarship Program seeks to nurture disadvantaged young people ages 8-16 with an interest in golf by providing access, instruction, and equipment to introduce them to golf and develop their games. Ferencroft CC works with area non-profits and social workers to identify candidates who complete an application and essay. The Program guides scholarship recipients into the game of golf by teaching them on the Ferencroft CC par 3 course, practice range, and short game area.

Known for its Robert Trent Jones, Sr. designed championship golf course that hosted the LPGA Boston Five Classic from 1980-90, Ferencroft Country Club is a full-service club with outstanding food, many social and children's activities, tennis courts, swimming pool, and fitness center. It is the first zero food waste country club in the United States. Set on 287 acres, Ferencroft CC is nineteen minutes north of downtown Boston where Route 1 meets I-95 on the North Shore.
